FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What packages should I choose?

You may choose the Ultimate, or Grand package which offers convenience and extra savings. Everything is included for you. If you choose the Commuter package you will need to book an outside hotel and transportation to/from competition venues and parks.

How do we arrange our airport transportation?

Airport transportation will be at your discretion. You are welcome to choose your own means of transportation that you are comfortable with. Due to new precautions, we can provide you with contact information for our preferred transportation company. You will work directly with them to arrange and book your busing pick up from the airport, as well as departing back to the Orlando International airport (MCO) only.

Our parents would like to stay with us, can they sign up for a package?

Of course they can! We encourage all friends and family to enjoy the InterNationals experience with their team. You can register them with your team or they can contact us and register independently.

My parents want to watch the competition, what ticket do they need?

Your parents will need to purchase one of our packages for the best experience. Our friends and family packages include a credential along with your theme park and admission ticket to allow access to each day of the competition. New this year friends/family can purchase admission only if they choose that they do not want to attend the parks. An individual choosing senior citizen (65+) admission will still need to do so with a valid ID.

We have a room that only has three, we are uneven. Can we pay the quad rate?

No. Our packages are specific for the number of people in each room.

If six to a room sells out, will you honor the same rate for a quad?

Unfortunately, we will not be able to. Again, our packages are specific for the number of people in each room.

We are scheduled to arrive at the resort at 11:00 a.m., will our hotel room be ready?

Check in at most hotels is 4:00 p.m.. However, if your room is ready, the hotel would be happy to get you all checked in!

We are not leaving Florida till after 5:00 p.m. on check out, what can we do during the day?

Since check out is at 11:00 a.m., the hotel would be happy to store your luggage while you go visit Universal Orlando Theme Park or Universal CityWalk to shop and eat.

When will we get our tickets/credentials and competitor gifts?

Upon arriving you will need to visit registration. You will then receive your tickets/credentials and competitor gifts. Please refer to the final confirmation packet for the registration location and times.

What is my credential?

Your credential is a special lanyard that AmeriCheer/AmeriDance will provide you. Your credential will allow you access into the competition venue, provided transportation, and our victory party.

What does "Park to Park" mean?

This will allow you to go from theme park to theme park in the same day. For example: you can go to Universal Studios Florida and then go to Universal's Island of Adventure that night. Parks include: Universal Studios Florida, Universal's Island of Adventure, and Universal's Volcano Bay. (Universal's Volcano Bay waterpark only included in 3 park ticket).

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I upgrade my park pass?

Yes, you can upgrade to a 3-, 4-, or 5-day pass. You can also upgrade your 2-park pass to 3-parks. The 3-park pass will grant you access to Universal's Volcano Bay. Contact our office for prices. It is recommended to upgrade upon registration. Availability will be limited upon arriving in Florida. You will not be able to upgrade once your park ticket has been used, or at the Universal Parks ticket window.

If we do not use all the days, may we use them next year?

No. These tickets are special event tickets that can only be used within a 2-week period.

Will I have to use a park day to attend the Victory Party?

No! The Victory Party will not use one of your park days but you still must bring your park pass. PLEASE NOTE: You must wear your credential to be allowed into the park.

Will there be transportation provided for the Victory Party?

AmeriCheer/AmeriDance will provide transportation for those staying on an Ultimate or Grand Resort Package.

What will be available at the Victory Party?

AmeriCheer/AmeriDance Victory Party will be in Marvel Super Hero Island in Universal Island of Adventure! There will be many attractions, restaurants, shopping, and entertainment available during the party.

Are there meal vouchers available for purchase?

You may order gift cards with your initial registration. The Gift Card is the perfect way to pre-pay your meals for great food at several dining locations throughout Universal Orlando's Theme Parks, Universal CityWalk and any Universal hotels. Gift Card: $25 per card.

When do I find out when we will compete?

A performance order will be sent to the coaches approximately 3 weeks prior to the competition. It will also be posted on the website www.americheer.com and www.ameridanceinc.com approximately 1 week before the competition.

2023 Competition Format: This schedule is tentative and may vary based upon registration

Saturday, March 18th: All Dance Categories (compete once) and School/Rec Flat Mat Divisions followed by Game Day division. All Spring Floor Divisions including All Star, School, Rec, individual, duo & stunt group.

Sunday, March 19th: All Spring Floor Divisions including All Star, All Star Prep, School, and Rec divisions. All School and Rec Flat Mat Divisions.

How will the judging be done?

Dance will compete on day (Saturday) and have their final score following awards. Cheer will compete two days (except prep and novice) and will have a 40/60 split – 40% of the day 1 score and 60% of day 2 score = final score.

I have individuals that would like to compete. Are there additional costs?

We have a competition for Individuals and Soloists ($95 per person) as well as Stunt Groups, Duos and Ensembles ($120 per performance not per person). However, if not a part of the team, this cost is covered in the initial package. High School Juniors and Seniors competing an individual or solo are eligible to qualify for our Athlete Honors Scholarship program.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the Athlete Honors Scholarship program?

We want to recognize cheer and dance athletes for their achievements in leadership, skill, and community service by awarding up to six $1000 scholarships to assist in their college education. Check out our website for the details on how to achieve and apply for a scholarship!

Will there be transportation provided to and from the competition venue?

AmeriCheer/AmeriDance will provide transportation to and from the Orange County Convention Center for those staying on an Ultimate or Grand Resort Package.

What if I speak a different language?

For your convenience, we will have a Spanish speaking staff members on staff during the event. If you are in need of a different language translator, please email info@americheer.com. However, it is highly encouraged to bring your own translator to the event.

Will there be a coaches meeting?

Yes, we will have a coaches meeting/reception on Friday evening at approximately 7pm. It is highly recommended that at least one representative from your organization attend this informational meeting.

Do we have to have a bid to attend?

No, however we do offer our InBid at all our competitions to provide additional savings.

What is the InBid?

AmeriCheer & AmeriDance have an exciting opportunity for organizations to earn savings to the InterNational Championship with our InBid! While we will still continue to have open registration, the InBid gives you the chance to earn rewards that will make attending the event even more prestigious for your athletes and coaches.

* Paid InBid recipients

will receive $200 per competitor credit and up to two coaches toward their Ultimate or Grand package.

* At-Large InBid recipients

will receive $10 - $15 discount per competitor credit and up to two coaches toward their Ultimate, Grand, or Commuter package.
